December 3rd.

Dear Harold,

You are being credited with a bang-up job on Bata, which makes me very happy. At present the layout is being made, and altogether the story in Click should turn out extra-fine.

Hence the request for more ideas from you. I'd suggest you write a title and a short synopsis--no more than 200 words--on a separate sheet for each idea. We'll go over them, and if there's anything we want, I'll contact you right away.

I hope your New York visit was successful both from a financial and health viewpoint.

Kindest regards,

Don
